Annual General Meeting & October Lunch Thursday October 12th

Dr Leigh Straw

From organised crime bosses to trailblazing female police officers, red light districts and notorious murder cases, Leigh Straw has delved into Australian crime history to reveal some fascinating stories featuring an interesting cast of women. Leigh's talk will follow the 'worst woman in Sydney', Dulcie Markham, 'Australia's most beautiful bad woman', Lillian Armfield, Australia's first female detective, and the colourful characters and businesswomen of Roe Street. Leigh Straw is an Associate Professor of History at the University of Notre Dame and award-winning author of Australian true crime books.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello everyone.

I can't believe it's nearly October and I will soon be overseeing our Annual General Meeting. It's been a huge privilege to be your President for the past year. And boy what a learning curve! I said before I took on the position that I felt the President should ideally have previously served on the Board. I still believe that to be true, but in today's world ideals are hard to come by. The AGM is a time of reflection on the year just past, and for expressing thanks to all of you who work so hard to keep PWP running. I will be thanking the Board at our lunch for everything they have done to support me during the past 12 months. I would like to single out Kari in particular, without whom I would not have got through the past year. She's always had my back, and been so adept at seeing the problems coming long before me! She will be travelling in October, that's why I'd like to take this chance to express my deep Board for 2023-24. The slate is below and there will be an election by show of hands at the A.G.M. I hope to see many of you there.

What a fabulous quilt made by Carol Roberts. There's a lot of talent in PWP!

SUNSHINE & SILVER LININGS

Our very own Mrs Sunshine is so brilliant at keeping in touch with you all about the good times and the challenging ones. Kevina had no news to report this month, but I couldn't let the opportunity go by without wishing her well for her forthcoming knee surgery which is scheduled for October 18th. Bless her heart, she even arranged it so it wouldn't interfere with the considerable task of organising our RSVP's!

Good luck Kevina, we know you will bounce back with your usual sunny disposition and fortitude!
