Our Speaker Jenny Davis O.A.M.

Actor, Author, Director, Playwright

A speaker not to be missed as Jenny Davis takes us through her varied career, including 45 years in theatre in W.A. and abroad.

She's the author of two books "Dear Heart", a wartime story based on letters discovered in her own family, and "Courage Be my Friend", which will be released by Fremantle Press this year.

Jenny is also the writer of the play "21 Hearts", the Vivian Bullwinkel story, which many of us will be attending in April. It will be fascinating to hear how she's tackled this tragic episode in history.

Jenny is a WA Women's Hall of Fame inductee, and a previous WA Senior of the Year recipient. She also founded Agelink Theatre which evolved into Theatre 180 which develops plays based on WA historical events and which is staging "21 Hearts".

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello everyone.

Thanks to everyone who came along to our first lunch at the Royal Perth Golf Club. The Board worked hard to try and allay some of the concerns you may have had in advance. There were a couple of hiccups on the day - one inadvertently caused by me! But for a first-time outing, it went well. Thanks for joining in with our speakers. I was certainly impressed with some of the "guns" on display!

You will have noticed some small changes, including the introduction of the Square for payment, using the big screen to advertise our activities, and some new Birthday chocolates. We have tried to shake it up a bit, within the confines of the structure of our meetings. As always, we welcome any ideas from you. My inbox is always open. A priority for the Board this year is to grow our membership, because we cannot survive if we don't thrive. So, I'm thrilled to see some new members who've had no previous connections to PWP, and the return of a few members who had previously given up membership. Welcome to you all.
