PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members,

I arrived back from a holiday in Japan early on the morning of the October meeting... I just made it to the lunch! Gerry McGann was a very interesting speaker on 'The Sex Life of a Crayfish'. Who would have guessed these little lava/phyllsoma travelled so far?

Thank you to our new board for managing in my absence...

Peta Edwards, 2nd VP has found another interesting speaker for our November lunch.

Phillip Orchard AM has had a successful career in two Navies, the British Consulate and RSL and has recently faced health challenges. We will hear how he has navigated life through these storms.

I'm delighted to say Jacqui Ure is restarting the Restaurant Club and Theatre Club, which previously ran successfully for many years. If you have suggestions of good restaurants a WhatsApp group where she will be able to get a quicker response than 'expressions of interest' at our monthly lunches. Please see Jacqui's piece later in the newsletter for details and contact her if you are interested in either group. The restaurant and theatre groups will be open to members and their partners and will improve the social base of the club and make us a more vibrant club for newcomers and members alike. New ideas are always welcome. Please see me or any board members with your suggestions.

Susan has introduced a monthly calendar to the newsletter so you'll be able to see at a glance what is happening in your club.

Don't forget ladies to book in early for the luncheon. Not only does it make Kevina Stewart's life easier, as our lunch booking coordinator, but you could be the recipient of the early booking prize. Helga Prieska was the lucky winner in October. It could be you next time.

Karen Hassan

President

REGULAR ACTIVITIES

Walking Group

Our energetic walkers have been making the most of Perth's glorious spring weather!

On 7 October, the group enjoyed a beautiful morning stroll through Kings Park, taking in the flowers and city views. A week later, on 14 October, they explored the peaceful trails around Lake Gwelup, followed (of course!) by a well-earned coffee.

The Walking Group meets every Tuesday morning and always welcomes new members. See where the path leads.

Discovery Coffee Morning

Each month we explore a new café around Perth. It's the perfect chance to discover hidden gems, enjoy good coffee, and share a relaxed morning of conversation with friends. New faces always welcome!

For November, mes amies, we will be transported straight to Paris (well, almost!)
