PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members,

A big 'thank you' to the outgoing board for an excellent job. At the September's luncheon meeting Jacqui listed some of the boards achievements over the last year. The new board has big shoes to fill.

I'd also like to thank the ladies of the incoming board for stepping up and taking on their new roles. Three of the ladies are new to the PWP board so I'm asking members to be supportive as we all step into our roles and learn the ropes. If you have any suggestions for activities or speakers we would love to hear them.

The ladies of the board introduced themselves at the September lunch. It was a very nervous time for some of us but haven't we led varied and interesting lives? Perhaps you were surprised to hear...that a couple of the ladies have owned their own businesses; Sarah worked for Shell or that Jane married Miles after four months so she could go skiing with him! How far and wide we have travelled as a group! This is surely one of the reasons why we are members of this group of ladies that have had the opportunity for different life experiences; a place where we can feel comfortable sharing with others who have had similar experiences.

At the start of a new PWP year, I just need to draw members attention to a couple of things:

- We are guests at the Royal Perth Golf Club so we need to abide by their dress code, no denim or jeans are allowed.
- We appreciate members who book early for the lunches so we are offering a prize of a bottle of

- A reminder ladies, that your booking should be made by Friday noon of the week prior to the lunch – 3rd October, this time. If you cancel after that time you can expect to be charged. It is not always possible to find a substitute member to fill your place and we have to pay the Golf Club for the food that has been ordered.

Finally, I do urge you to come to the October lunch. The speaker Gerry McGann is a great speaker and I'm confident we're in for a very entertaining lunch.

I look forward to working with a good board and another great year of friendship and fun.

Karen Hassan
